All competitions will be shot concurrently.

RULES

- NSRA Rules & Regulations will apply except for ties. For Prone this will be decided on countback from the last card, the bottom pair of diagrams being considered the last card. For Bench Rest countback will be used initially followed by the number of Xs scored if necessary. The Range Committee will settle any disputes and their decision will be final.
- Averages should be calculated from the best 5 of the last 6 officially scored cards. Competitors will be allocated to classes in accordance with their submitted averages. The Range Committee reserves the right to reclassify any competitor whose declared average appears to be incorrect.
- Teams must comprise four members of the same club.
- Recorded Scores. It is the responsibility of the competitor to ensure that their scores are correctly recorded on the exhibited lists. A score may be challenged on a deposit of £5.00, which will be returned if the challenge is upheld. The Association will not enter into any correspondence regarding missing or disputed scores after the close of the meeting.
- Disciplinary matters. The procedure for dealing with any disciplinary matters is fully documented within the "SSBSA Rifle & Airgun Competition Rules & Format", a copy of which is available upon request.
- Range Register. All competitors must sign the Range Register and visitors must sign the competition Clubroom Register available on the day.
- Squadding. Every competitor whose entry is accepted and entry fee paid will be squadded at his or her chosen time. Should the chosen squad be filled, the competitor will be offered whatever squad is available.
- Squadding details, including squad time, competitor number & firing point, will be displayed in the clubhouse. Squads will commence promptly at the times stated. Competitors must allow sufficient preparation time so as to be ready to shoot at those times.
- Targets and backing cards will be available on the firing point prior to your squadded time. Competitor number, firing point number, and detail number will be found on all targets and backers - is the competitor's responsibility to check that this information is correct. Queries must be resolved with the range officer before shooting commences.
- Bulldog clips are required.
- Shot targets and backers are to be handed to the Range Officer at the end of each detail.
- Breech flags must be inserted when rifles are not in use but uncovered and with the bolt or action in place.
- Removal of equipment. Competitors should remove their equipment from the firing point at the end of their last detail before collecting their targets.
- No show. In the event of a competitor being unable to attend, any entry fees paid, less 20%, will be refunded if the meeting organiser is informed at least 2 days before the meeting.
